

PETER CATT

Peter's educational career is diverse and replete with many accomplishments. Peter was a Lecturer in Education at UTS for 5 years. Prior to this Peter was the Principal of Hornsby South Public School for 8 years and the Principal of Narrabeen Public School. During Peter's educational career he also held Executive Positions at Neutral Bay PS, Nicholson St PS and Manly PS for 10 years. Throughout Peter's career in education, he also held positions of Senior Education Officer, Teacher and State Instrumental Music Consultant for the Department of Education.

In 2007, Peter accepted an invitation to be an ambassador for the Life Education 'Keep Aussie Kids Safe Campaign'. This role has impacted Peter the most. He was afforded this role as his beloved 20 year old daughter, Annabel, died on 18th February, 2007 from PMA poisoning. Annabel is the face of the Life Education 'Keep Aussie Kids Safe Campaign'.

Peter's role includes working with senior officers in Life Education to write sponsorship letters, participate in an advertisement which is being screened on national TV, speak at official functions and support the opening of the campaign by giving media interviews alongside the National Manager. Peter's involvement with Life Education is ongoing.

Peter was also an Associate for the Erebus Group Pty Ltd in 2008-2009.

Peter has also in the past offered his time and volunteered as the State Manager for the U14 Manly Warringah Baseball team, Musical Director for the Pymble Players production of 'The Elves and the Shoemaker', Musical Director and actor in the UTS and Quong Tart Production of 'Quong Tart', general hand for the Elanora Heights Community Kindergarten and the administrative assistant for Pittwater Uniting Church.
